

Ancestry Old and New Search Links

The “New” Search option on Ancestry has been called “stinky” by some users and I think the term is too tame! To use the American vernacular “it sucks” to say the least. So far, Ancestry have failed to respond to my emails on the subject – and I am not alone.

Anyway, here are the links to both Old and New searches:

OLD Search

<http://search.ancestry.co.uk/search/default.aspx?new=0>

<http://search.ancestry.com/search/default.aspx?new=0>

NEW Search

<http://search.ancestry.co.uk/search/default.aspx?new=1>

<http://search.ancestry.com/search/default.aspx?new=1>

I have also added the links to the WFT Toolbar so that they are easy to get at. You may need to refresh your Toolbar if the options are not visible – under Ancestry, BMD and Census.

I hope this is of use to you fellow researchers.

Phil.
