Gabriel Swallow is part of your tree. We research the cemetery in Shrewsbury Shropshire and we are interested in Gabriel who was the very first burial in the cemetery in 1856. He has rather a grand tomb which is surprising as he was a game keeper and also seems to live at the canal tavern inn - occasionally getting into fights or being taken to court. His grandson also called Gabriel died in the workhouse. I was wondering if you had any idea why Gabriel has such an expensive burial monument. A photo of it is on Findagrave in the General cemetery
