I am very interested to learn about the Revd Theophilus Pugh, from your family. Especially if you have any detail or information about his time in Dover when he was Superintendent minister there. Also, any detail about his views on the Wesleyan 'Fly Sheet Controversy'. With a local Dover church member, I am compiling a brief history of Methodism in the town of Dover. Many thanks, Revd Harvey Richardson

Hi. The only information I have on Rev. Theophilus Pugh is already on the website. If I come across anything else I will try to let you know. Regards, Phil.

Hello, First of all, what a fabulous job you have done on the Williams Family history. Really impressive. I came to it while searching for Elizabeth Mary Williams (1864-1910). I believe she married a distant ancestor of mine, one Edward Edwards (1863-1919). Among their children was Lewis Johnn Edwards (1889-1937) and one of his sons was Anthony Herbert Edwards (1926-1973). His daughter is Tracy Edwards MBE, the skipper of the first all-female crew to sail around the world in the Whitbread Round the World Yacht Race. It seems the maritime tradition runs deep! Best regards, Gary Edwards OBE.

Admin Reply:

Hi Gary, Many thanks for your message. Up until now I had no information on Elizabeth Mary Williams - my 1st cousin twice removed. I will have to take a look and see if I can fill in some gaps. There is a marriage registration between Edward Edwards and Elizabeth Mary Williams in Newport, Monmouthshire in the last quarter of 1888. I take it this is them? If you have any further information on the family I would appreciate you getting in touch. My email address is phil@williamsfamilytree.co.uk. Kind regards, Phil.

Phil: just came across your website when researching Owen Williams, my great grandfather, (we have named our yacht here on Lake Ontario - Olive Branch- a schooner mastered by Owen Williams). I am not sure how to offer updated info but my mother, Winifred Williams (wife of William Lewis Williams) passed away on February 9, 2018 ion her 100th year. Thought that you might be able to use this. Also I can offer the updates as far as our offspring and their children are concerned.

Stuart Williams

Admin Reply:

Hi Stuart, It was great to hear from you and I think the name "Olive Branch" is a great name for your new yacht. Merry Christmas to you all and I hop you have a great New Year. Phil.

I am researching Lucy Jane Gardner (Aiano b1846). Her mother Catherine Aiano married (1858) my g.g.gfather's brother William Pierce and Lucy accompanied them to NZ. Catherine Pierce (Aiano) was admitted to Christchurch hospital in December 1876 but I can find no record of her death. In his will signed January 1877 William is "widower". Do you have any information about Catherine - where/when she died and where she was buried? (William is in Lyttelton cemetery).

Sir, I am searching for the family of "Willie Edward Williams" who died in Flanders on the 10th October 1917. He was born in Towyn (now Tywyn) but I have no further information regarding him, age, DOB etc., other than his WW1 information that he was a soldier with the King's Royal Rifle Corps, he was a rifleman and his regimental number was R/29414. I have something that belongs to him/his family and would like to pass it back to them.

Admin Reply:

Hi Julie, Thank you for your message. I am a member of a Tywyn group on Facebook and have asked other members of the group if they know of Willie or his family. As yet I have not found any reference to him in the 1901 and 1911 census returns but will keep looking. If anything turns up I will, of course, let you know. Kind regards, Phil.

Hello, what a lovely site! Very well presented and so interesting. I have been working on a branch of my tree which matches some of your entries. The Dorrington Family of Hornchurch. How are you connected to them? I see you have Ellis as a close relative - I have Ellis connected to the Dorringtons. Any connection there?

Grandson of Rosella Male (Applegate) wrote on 3 September 2018 at 6:02 pm
Hi, I am one of the grandsons of Rosella Male (Applegate) from the family tree. I would like to add to that side of the family. Could I have permission to enhance the tree? Thank you in advance!

Admin Reply:

Hi, Rosella Male was my niece's husband's cousin once removed so yes, you are welcome to add as much information as you like. You can register on the site by following this link: <http://williamsfamilytree.co.uk/tree/newacctform.php> This will give you greater access and facilities and will allow you to send updates for individuals. However, if you have a lot of information, the best method would be to email me the data you have and I will update my database and thus the website, as well as verifying what information I can. My email address is phil@williamsfamilytree.co.uk I look forward to hearing from you. Kind regards, Phil.

Nathan from Sheffield wrote on 31 August 2018 at 12:25 am

Hi Phil, Nathan again from the Staniforth Society, I've still not come across any evidence to show your Staniforth branches from early 1400s Eckington are correct. I've just checked again and noticed you have a William Staniforth, son of Thomas Staniforth and Agnes (A marriage that I can find no proof of, no mention of an Agnes and Thomas on the Manor court rolls), but William is born almost 100 years after the father Thomas, and 50 years after the last child, surely you can see how this cannot be possible? Nathan Staniforth

Admin Reply:

Hi Nathan, Unfortunately, most of my information came from "The Redshaw Family Tree" when I was a lot younger. All attempts to contact the creator of said tree to point out many mistakes failed miserably. Apparently, Thomas Staniforth married Agnes in 1534 in Eckington and they had 8 children - none of whom was William! If you change his birth date to 1539 he fits in very nicely between John (1537) and Henry (1541). <https://www.familysearch.org/tree/person/details/KDQ2-8PQ> Following the record of a William Staniforth who was buried in 1622 reveals he was the one who married Joan Mycocke and that he was born in 1550, the son of Thomas Staniforth and Jane Vavasour. This Thomas was, allegedly, the son of Thomas and Agnes and was born about 1532. However, the same record infers that William and Joan had 11 children, two of whom were named William! One was born in 1573 and married a Mary. The other was born in 1579 and married Elizabeth Thorpe. My conclusion? It's not just me and the creator of The Redshaw Family Tree that makes errors! ☹ Kind regards, Phil.

My grandmother was Emily Caroline Baker. She apparently married and became EmilyCaroline Leake. She had 3 daughters, Emily, Molly and Ellen. After being widowed she married William Alouisis Martin. Emily Caroline Martin later adopted the children of her daughter Ellen after Ellen's death. My mother was born to Ellen in 1924.

Admin Reply:

Hi Jennifer, Many thanks for the info and apologies for the delay in responding. Emily Caroline Baker married John Leake 21 Jun 1899 in Bishopstone, Wiltshire. By 1911 they had four children: Mary Ada (Molly), John Edward H., Emily Jane, and Ellen Johanna. Ellen allegedly married Edward Causton Takuma and gave birth to Evelyn Leake and William John. I have her as dying in 1939 when William John was 10 years old. However, there is a marriage of an Ellen Johanna Leake to John Patrick Divine in 1939 at Woollahra - so I am a bit confused! I would be grateful if you could pass on any further information. My email address is phil@williamsfamilytree.co.uk Kind regards, Phil.
