

John Nottage and Family

Thanks to Glyn Scally, I have been able to update the Nottage, Graves, Salmon and their extended families. There is still a lot of work to be done with respect to the census source information but the majority of the data is now on the website.

The number of individuals in The Williams Family Tree is fast approaching the 70,000 mark (less than 400 to go) and I intend to slow things down a little once this target has been reached!

Don't forget, you are welcome to add information to The Williams Family Tree Wiki but you will have to be registered and your email address confirmed before you can do so.

Finally, for now, on the 7th July 2012, my second cousins twice removed will become my step-sons - as Vickie and I will, at last, be tying the knot!

Enjoy,

Phil.
