

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year

Yes, it's that time of the year again. Already! At least this year I'm able to have a proper Christmas! No diet restrictions for me this festive season so expect to see a larger Phil in January!!

I would like to say thank you to all of you and I am extremely grateful to everyone who has sent me information and/or updated the family tree in some way or another. All input is now acknowledged so you can be assured that you get the credit you deserve for sending me any info. The Williams Family Tree would not be anywhere as near as large as it is without your help.

There are a lot of things in the pipeline for the coming months and a new look for the web site is in the planning stage but I won't bore you with the details just yet. For now, I wish everyone a Very Merry Christmas and hope that we all have a Happier and Prosperous New Year. Yes, I've been on the cake already!

Have fun this festive season and we'll see each other again in 2009.
